Mr. James Ramey of the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy advised that the Committee desired to have their annual presentation from the DCI on either the 14th or 15th of January. In querying him on the type of material desired, he said the usual presentation including general political and military situations throughout the world, the status of nuclear weapons and missiles. He mentioned the Beta report but thought we need not get into that. As examples of political situations he mentioned the Middle East and NATO. He also thought it desirable to include discussion of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] In addition to the briefing question, he thought it would be desirable if they were supplied with a list of reports or estimates that might be of interest to the staff and the Joint Committee so they could make appropriate requests for specific items of interest. This question will be taken up by me with Dr. Scoville.

[REDACTED] ORR, called in connection with the request from the Civil Aeronautics Board concerning correspondence with the Agency. [REDACTED] said that the letter to EIC could be shown to the investigator at CAB. The other letter would be a matter of interest to [REDACTED] and was being referred to him for comment. Legislative Counsel will prepare a reply to CAB.
